

FINANCIAL AID SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Scholarships averaging between $250 to $400 are available to students who have been studying a musical instrument for at least two years in a high school music program, a music school, a specialized program in a CEGEP, conservatory or university or through private lessons.

Scholarships are used to reduce the cost of tuition, student activity fees and taxes for a session at the Camp Musical du Saguenay Lac-St-Jean, and are awarded on the condition that the applicant has signed up for an entire session. The scholarships are only valid for the 2024. sessions.

Conditions of admissibility and procedures:

1. The applicant is required to complete the Camp musical's scholarship application form describing the student's motivation for the applying, his/her interest in studying music at the Camp musical, (with the consentment of their parents) and their desire to continue their musical studies in the future.
2. The student must show that without a scholarship, he/she will not be able to attend a session at the Camp musical. ( When applicable, a letter from the parents detailing the situation is advisable).
3. The student must provide:
  - A letter describing his/her reasons and motivation for submitting a scholarship application (in connection to the points 1 an 2 described above).
  - A completed application to a full session at the Camp musical
  - A completed scholarship application form (see below) with all the information provided as demanded. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
4. The selection committee will be accepting scholarship applications starting in January 2024. and until and including April 15 2024 (session «Sonates»)
5. The selection committee will evaluate the scholarship applications during the period of April 1 to April 15 2024. The decisions of the committee are final and immutable.
6. The selection committee will then recommend successful candidates and the proposed scholarship amounts to the camp's administrative office.
7. A scholarship may be used by the successful candidate, and only this candidate, for a session during the summer of 2024. In the impossibility for the successful candidate to attend the camp, the scholarship must be forfeited. Scholarships are not transferable to another student nor to a session ulterior.

NOTE : The selection committee reserves the right to refuse a student who would be receiving a scholarship for the second year in a row or whose application is incomplete.
